New Years greeting to the church family at College St

As I contemplate what to write as a short greeting to you, my simple message is to ask you to join us on the Discipleship training programme of “Living what we believe” during 2020. I also want to borrow the words from one of our daily devotion of 4th January 2020. I did not write these words but it would have being what I wanted to write. So let me encourage you with them as a message to all members and visitors who will join us this year at NTCG College Street.

Enlarge your asking capacity for 2020!

‘You do not have because you do not ask God.’

James 4:2 NIV

How large is your asking capacity when it comes to prayer? When Elijah asked Elisha, “What may I do for you, before I am taken away?”...Elisha said, “Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me” (2 Kings 2:9 NKJV). Some of us may have been shocked by his response, pegged him as arrogant, and said, ‘You need to humble yourself and be grateful for the privilege of serving a great prophet like Elijah, and count yourself fortunate if God permits you to carry on his ministry.’ But Elisha wasn’t timid, and Elijah wasn’t offended. So how did it all turn out? Elisha got his double portion and ended up performing twice as many miracles as Elijah. When you pray, God doesn’t say, ‘Make your request reasonable and practical.’ He wants you to ask ‘largely and abundantly, not sparingly’ (see James 1:5). How’s this for a big promise: ‘Only ask, and I will give you the nations as your inheritance, the whole earth as your possession’ (Psalm 2:8 NLT)? Take the limits off God! Think about it: if He’s willing to give you ‘the nations as your inheritance’, He will surely save your loved ones, heal your body, give you that job, that home, or that relationship you’ve been praying for. Jesus said, ‘And I will do whatever you ask in my name’ (John 14:13 NIV 2011 Edition). Only two times in Scripture has someone said something that caused Jesus to marvel. On both occasions it was a demonstration of audacious faith by a Gentile, and someone the religious crowd thought had no right to God’s miraculous provision. So the word for you today is – enlarge your asking capacity.

And see everything double for you and I in 2020.

Pastor Donovan Allen

Discipleship Growth Plan September 2019 – April 2020

Living what we believe - Knowing Being Doing

Erica Liburd-
Hamilton
Worship Leader

When the Discipleship Growth Plan [DGP] was introduced to us here at College St NTCG I was extremely excited, encouraged and challenged.

It comes at a time when there is political, economical and social unrest within the UK. The Government and society as a whole seem to have no clear understanding of what they believe in and stand for and as a consequence are unclear about what action they need to take to make things better.

The DGP is empowering us to reflect and learn more about what we believe as Pentecostal Christians. The programme also allows us to focus and actively engage with the principles of our Declaration of Faith. The DGP is an effective and creative approach which I think is proving to be a helpful way in which to help our congregation develop deepen our understanding of how to foster a sustainable Christian lifestyle in and outside of Church and grow in our discipleship.

I like the way the DGP involves everyone, regardless of age or whether the person is new convert or an experienced Christian, member or visitor. I love how all our areas of Ministries can use the DGP to develop personal individual growth plan through Bible Study, prayer, group meetings and community engagement as well as enhance our ministry teams and the Church as a whole.

The Praise & Worship Team and I have had to rethink our approach when selecting songs for our services. We seek to ensure that we prepare ourselves and the songs to set the tone for worship in line with the message/theme of the day. This challenges us to assess our depth of spirituality and dig deep into our resources for old and new hymns/choruses to enable meaningful praise and worship at all times. This process has had a positive impacted our team. We are learning to draw on our skills and spiritual gift(s) to make our contribution to the life and ministry of the Church.

I have come to the conclusion that an active change in how we live our lives as Christians otherwise expressed as spiritual maturity and growth are good measured of the effectiveness of the DGP. Growing disciples seize opportunities to testify and witness, and demonstrate heightened willingness to serve the Lord in whatever capacity we are called to serve.

I have given much thought to the phrase "Living, Knowing, Being, Doing". It has caused me to be more conscious of the way I engage with people around me and share the Gospel with confidence and conviction in my workplace. I am pleased to say God has allowed me to be bold and discern situations inside and outside Church to witness for his glory. I have and continue to benefit from this programme. My motto as a Worship leader is this:

"We exist to glorify God as one, developing a Lifestyle of worship.

Leading others to God through an uncompromised worshipful experience, which is Holy Spirit lead."

This month we will be focussing on 'Living What we believe - A Spirit Baptized People.'

Women's response to Power

Rev Hudson -Wilkin was ordained deacon in 1991 and ordained to the priesthood in 1994. For sixteen and a half years she served as a priest in Hackney – North East London. In 2007 she was appointed as a Chaplain to Her Majesty the Queen and in 2010, she became the first female appointed to the position of the 79th Chaplain to the Speaker of the House of Commons. In her new role she leads the prayers in the House of Commons daily when the House is sitting and carries the responsibility for the pastoral care of both members and staff of the Palace of Westminster. In November 2014, she became the Priest in Charge of the city Church, St Mary-at-Hill near Monument. She has previously served as a member of the General Synod of the Church of England and as one of the Panel of Chairs of the Synod. She has represented the Church of England at the World Council of Churches, served as priest representative on the Anglican Consultative Council and a Selection Secretary for the Church of England. She has helped to select men and women seeking to test their vocation to the ministry. She is often called upon to present some religious broadcasting and interviews by the media. She was recently made Fellow in Public Theology at Virginia Theological Seminary, USA.
